As we gather together at Mass this weekend, let us say a prayer of thanksgiving for all those brave men and women who sacrificed their lives so that we may continue to live in a free country. We also recognize and honor those who are presently serving in our armed forces on active and reserve duty. May God protect them.

This weekend is the deadline to drop off the Christmas cards you've written to our hospitalized wounded warriors. Thank you to those who took the time to bring some holiday comfort and joy to them.

COME JOIN YOUR PARISH FAMILY Wednesday evening for our final Fall Mission Night! Mass is at 6:00 pm, with dinner and a short fun-filled program to follow in the Parish Hall. The youth of the parish have been polishing their acts and look forward to your support. Donations are welcome to defray meal costs.

Financial Commitment Weekend

In this season of thanksgiving we are grateful to the parishioners who turned in their offertory commitment pledge cards during last weekend's parish Stewardship Treasure Weekend. It's not too late to drop yours in the basket, or mail it to the parish if you will be away for the Thanksgiving holiday. We've placed a basket in the narthex for your convenience. Again, thank you!!

Is someone in your family ill? Are you a new mother? Let us know! Call the Church office @ 706-884-4224. Our Meals for the Sick ministry will be happy to assist you as you recover from your hospital/rehabilitation stay.

Our nursery is open to all children up to 4 years old during the 11:00 am Mass. We are located in Building 1.

Today's Prayer Reflection

"Today Is the Day"

Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the Second Coming of the Lord. Through their perseverance, they will emerge victorious when the Lord comes again. As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations.

Jesus cautions us (Gospel) not to be deceived by those claiming "the time has come." Today's Epistle counsels us to take the Apostles as our models. Like them we must persevere in the face of unbelieving relatives and friends, and forces and authorities hostile to God. We pray "O Lord come!" Jesus answers us when He comes in the Eucharist each time during the liturgy. It's a pledge and a mighty sign of that Day to come.

Monastery Sales

The annual Monastery of the Holy Spirit sale gets under way after all Masses this weekend and the weekend of December 3rd - 4th. This is a great opportunity to get some Christmas shopping done and support one of the great Catholic treasures we have in Georgia. The Knights of Columbus will be selling several items including fudge, fruitcake, coffee, honey, jams and the famous biscotti. Please help to support the monks and the beautiful campus in Conyers, GA.

A Message from Our Librarians

The St. Peter's Library Committee is presently updating records. Many books have been checked out for a long time, some for years! We are asking parishioners to please check to see if they have books from the church library that need to be returned. In the future, the Library Committee will email parishioners who have books checked out for longer than 30 days. If you need more time, please feel free to come into the library and renew the book. St. Peter's is so fortunate to have a library such as ours. We encourage everyone to come in and take a look.

Save the Date!

The St. Peter's Adult Christmas party will be held on Saturday, December 3rd in the Parish Hall after the 6:00 pm Mass. It will be a potluck dinner. More to come later!

BULLETIN DEADLINE: Written notices must be submitted to bulletin@stpeterslagrange.net by Thursday at 9:00 am ten (10) days prior to date of publication. Please allow ample time for approval by Fr. Patrick.

Online Giving is a safe and convenient way to donate to the church. Sign up by clicking the logo on our website.
